

Addiction is a FAMILY disease. Addicts and their families need SUPPORT, not judgement. NarAnon is a Support Group designed to help family and friends of an addicted loved one recover from the effects of living with an addict. The NarAnon program of recovery uses NarAnons 12 steps and 12 traditions. The only requirement to attend meetings is that there is a problem of addiction to drugs with a friend or family member. Meetings are STRICTLY confidential – what is said here STAYS here. We promise you will feel welcomed and have plenty of support, we are like family! Meetings are free to attend.
